

NAME of activity	Diversion of objects
duration	30 mn
audience	From 6 years old 5 – 20 persons
Pedagogical goal	Imagination – diversified uses of object – creativity – improvisation – expression - mime
Description	In a circle, an object goes from hand to hand. Each participant must propose a different use of it, miming or playing the new use. The turn goes fast, several times and the exercise must call for imagination without mentalize or think too much, but improvising each time we receive the object.
Material	Any object (music instrument, pen, shoe...)
Space	Not much necessary
Comments	We can make several tours with the same object or use several objects.
Restitution	This exercise can be the depart point of an act, with the objects that are used in the show (juggling balls, chinese plates...). At one moment, they will be used differently. This produces a comic effect. Can be added to a juggling act.
